

MDP in Project Management for IT & ITES

Struggling to Align IT Projects With Business Goals Despite Technical Expertise?

- ▶ You're not alone. Many tech professionals find themselves juggling client demands, delivery timelines, and change requests—often without a strategic project framework.
- ▶ Struggling to meet business expectations while handling technical complexities?

PMSoft's Management Development Program (MDP) for IT professionals

- ▶ • A 4-day intensive course designed to build project leadership capabilities grounded in global best practices (PMBOK®, Agile, PRINCE2®).
- Tailored specifically for IT and ITES environments.
- Covers key dimensions like stakeholder engagement, risk management, change control, effort estimation, and multi-project handling.

Whether you're managing product sprints or waterfall-based deliverables, the Management Development Program for IT professionals gives you the tools to streamline execution, minimize overruns, and deliver consistently.
